Empowering Change:
Shaping the Future of Mobile Healthcare

21st Annual Mobile Health Clinics Conference
Louisville, Kentucky – September 13-16, 2025

Conference Overview

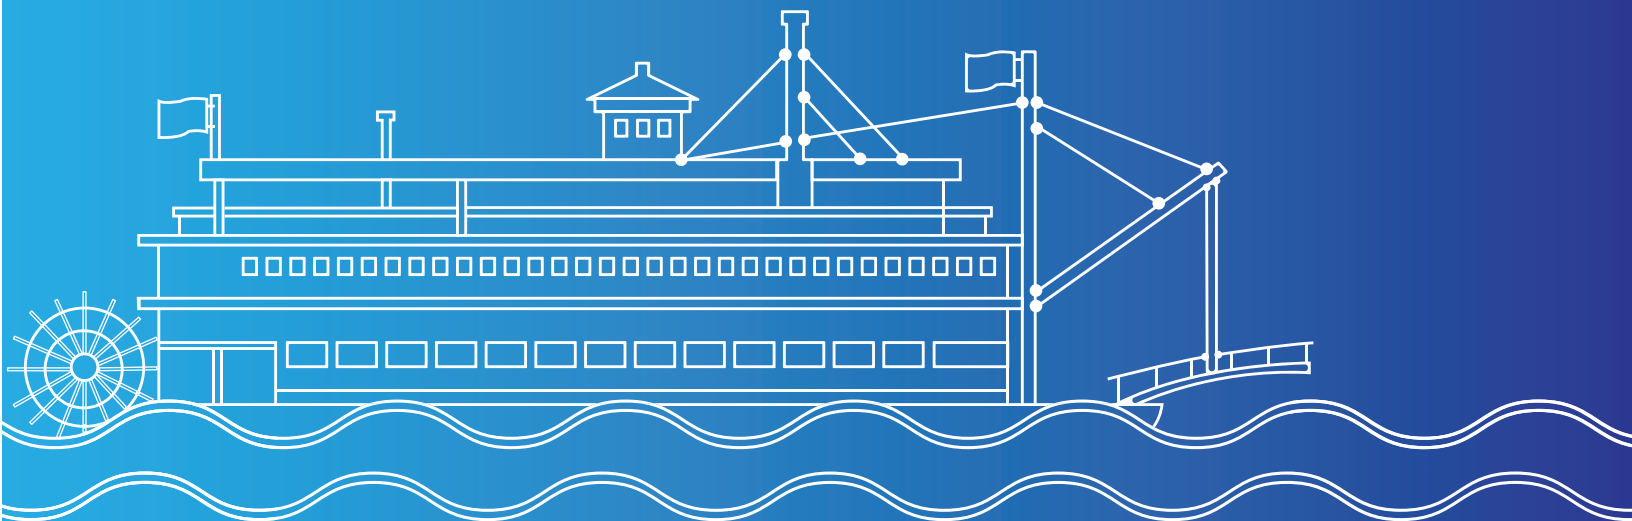

Mobile Healthcare Association is excited to announce the exhibit and sponsorship opportunities for the 21st Annual Mobile Health Clinics Conference at the Kentucky International Convention Center in Louisville, Kentucky, September 13 – 16, 2025. Exhibitors and sponsors are vital to the success of the annual conference, and we want to ensure that your participation benefits you and your company's bottom line.

Geographic Representation

Our member organizations service a range of areas including rural, suburban, and urban communities across the US and Canada.

Healthcare Field Representation

Historically, Conference attendees come from a wide range of health institutions, from large hospitals to universities, FQHCS, and community clinics.

Connect With Your Target Audience

The Annual Conference draws over 600 mobile healthcare providers including C-Suite professionals, program leaders, doctors and dentists, nurse practitioners, and administrators. Conference attendees are decision-makers in the purchasing process for vehicles, products, and services for their mobile program.

Hear from Our Exhibitors

"Participation in the Annual Mobile Health Clinics Conference enables our company to network with industry professionals, gain valuable market insights, and stay informed on the latest innovations. This drives business growth and uncovers new opportunities."

Matthews Specialty Vehicles

"We are proud and excited to have had a front-row seat to the exciting growth at Mobile Healthcare Association. Each year we display our mobiles at the annual conference, the best platform to advertise our product and show our craftsmanship. Over the years we have gained many customers and developed many relationships through the Association."
